Media Policies for Spring Practices

All interviews with Head Coach James Franklin and Commodore student-athletes during Vanderbilt Spring Practice will be conducted following practices.

Beginning with the team's third practice (Tuesday, March 22), beat reporters and local media outlets will be allowed to watch portions of each practice. Local media photographers and videographers will be allowed to shoot the closing stages of practice starting on March 22.

Assistants on Coach Franklin's staff will be made available following one practice (TBA) each week.

2011 Spring Guide Credits

The 2011 Vanderbilt Spring Guide is published by the Vanderbilt Athletic Communications staff.

Vanderbilt football sports information director Larry Leathers serves as the primary writer for this spring guide, with help from staffers Ryan Schulz, Andy Boggs, Chris Weinman, staff intern Laina Balafas, and graduate student assistant Donny Turnbaugh.

Photos were provided by staff shooters John Russell, Steve Green and Joe Howell. Other free-lance shooters, including Frank DiBrango, Stan Jones, Mike Rapp, and Michael Marti also contributed their talents.

Vanderbilt Spring Drills Start March 18

Game-Like Atmosphere Planned for April 17th Black & Gold Spring Game

On Friday, March 18, Vanderbilt opens Spring Ball 2011 sporting new coaches and new expectations.

James Franklin, named to guide the Vanderbilt program last December, will oversee his first spring practice as a head coach. In doing so, he promises to push for a unified Commodore squad.

"We plan to become a team that has a positive attitude, a team with unbelievable work ethic, and a team that competes in everything we do," Franklin said.

The Commodores will hold 14 practices leading to the Black & Gold Spring Game, scheduled Sunday, April 17. For the first time in more than a decade, Vanderbilt's main spring attraction will feature a game-like atmosphere.

Many attractions are planned with the Black & Gold Spring Game. The Vandyville tailgate area, featuring numerous kids activities, will be available at 3 p.m., three hours prior to kickoff. Pre-game autograph sessions also are planned.

New Era in Vanderbilt Football: James Franklin Named as Coach

Vanderbilt will unveil the James Franklin Era March 18 when the Commodores begin spring drills on campus.

Franklin, 39, was introduced as the 27th head coach in Vanderbilt gridiron history on Dec. 17, 2010.

The former University of Maryland assistant head coach/offensive coordinator replaced Robbie Caldwell, who went 2-10 in 2010, his only season as head coach of the program.

Since the initial press conference, Franklin has been working to change the culture surrounding a program that has enjoyed just one winning season in recent memory.

"It's time that this football program starts reflecting everything else on this campus and that's a commitment to excellence," Franklin said at the December announcement. "No part of this program will settle. We will be all about competing...about having a great attitude on and off the field, and about developing men for the future."

Just weeks after accepting the Vanderbilt position, Franklin enticed what recruiting experts suggest is the top Commodore signing class since the mid-1990s.

He also put the finishing touches on a coaching staff that includes some of the brightest minds in college football.

Franklin has told Commodore followers to expect a different mindset from Vanderbilt players and staff. A top priority in Spring Ball is to develop team confidence and unity.

"We must create the belief among everyone associated with the Vanderbilt program that winning is our expectation, from the players, coaches and staff to all of our fans. Our intent as football team is to succeed in everything we do. That starts with Spring Ball," Franklin said.

Defensive Secondary: Commodore Strength

The Commodores return virtually the entire defensive secondary intact, including two veterans that most experts believe are among the Southeastern Conference's best at their respective positions.

The secondary is paced by a pair of seniors and All-SEC prospects in cornerback Casey Hayward and safety Sean Richardson.

The corps also includes starting cornerback Eddie Foster, starting free safety Kenny Ladler, and part-time starters Andre Hal and Trey Wilson, and several other young prospects that will push for starting roles.

"The secondary appears to be one of the strengths of our defense, and we'll look to build on that strength during spring ball," Head Coach James Franklin said. "We'll also look for a lot of leadership from this position group."

Hayward ranks third among active SEC players with eight INTs and topped the conference last year in pass breakups (11) and passes defended (17). Richardson, a starter in 18 straight games, ranks among the league's active leaders with 193 total tackles.

Every '10 Starter Returns on Offense

The Commodores hope blending a new and innovative coaching staff with a load of returning starters result in more offensive points and production.

Vanderbilt returns all 11 offensive starters from a year ago, including two-year starting QB Larry Smith, active receptions leader Brandon Barden at tight end, active rushing leader Warren Norman at tailback, and 2010 SEC All-Freshman pick Wesley Johnson at left tackle.

Head Coach James Franklin, who served as offensive coordinator at Maryland, has hired one of his top Terrapin assistants, John Donovan, as the Vanderbilt coordinator. The staff also includes four assistants at BCS-level teams last year: Charles Banks, TEs, Maryland; Chris Beatty, WRs, West Virginia; Herb Hand, OL, Vanderbilt; and Ricky Rahne, QBs, Kansas State.

In 2010, the unit ranked low in the SEC in scoring offense (16.9 ppg, 12th), total offense (298.2 ypg, 12th) and pass offense (159.4 ypg, 11th).

Quarterbacks: Trio Competing this Spring

The Commodores enter spring drills with three scholarship quarterbacks in uniform – and one of the trio is expected to ease into a full return due to injury.

The new Commodore staff has just one signal caller that has taken a snap at Vanderbilt: two-year starter Larry Smith. The only other healthy quarterback on scholarship is redshirt sophomore Charlie Goro.

Jordan Rodgers, the player most observers believe could compete with Smith for the starting job, should be at full strength by the close of spring drills.

The added repetitions – and coaching from a pair of notable quarterback mentors in James Franklin and position coach Ricky Rahne – could prove beneficial to the entire group.

Quarterback depth will improve this summer, with three QB signees expected on campus: Josh Grady of Tampa, Fla., Kris Kentera of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Lafonte Thourogood of Virginia Beach, Va.

Four 'Dores Looking at Position Changes

Four Commodores will enter Spring Practice playing positions different from a year ago.

Two of the six – Blake Gowder and Marc Panu – are moving across the line of scrimmage: Gowder going from TE/HB to LB and Panu going from DL to FB.

After alternating between RB and DB last year, Eric Samuels is expected to start spring drills at DB.

A fourth letter winner, Javon Marshall, will move from CB to safety.

'Q&A' WITH COACH FRANKLIN

Coach, can you talk about this being your first Spring Practice as a head coach?

FRANKLIN: "I'm very excited about spring ball. Really, I'm probably most excited that it gives us an opportunity to get on the field and actually coach these guys in a specific football environment. We've done the ground work, had a really strong offseason (weight) program with the entire team. But there's a difference between working in the weight room, and actually doing it on the field. Getting on the field and seeing what our guys can do, how they transfer information from the classroom to the field, things like that.

"I'm evaluating a lot of things, like our tempo, how are we going to practice and compete? I also want to see the guys on the field and see how they react to our coaches.

"I'm pleased with where we are as a team (entering spring drills). I've watched us come together as a team and I'm starting to see the confidence build. So, of course, I'm very excited about spring ball."

Talk about (Director of Performance Enhancement) Dwight Galt's efforts – and results he's witnessed – during first winter workout program on campus?

FRANKLIN: "Everybody is excited. It's apparent our kids really love Coach (Galt) and are working extremely hard for him. In just a short time, we have made amazing strides in our speed, strength and flexibility.

"To me, Coach Galt is the best strength coach in the country. He's doing a tremendous job. If you talk to the players and our coaches, they'll tell you how impressed they have been."

"I also think it's been a rebirth for Coach Galt. He was great at Maryland, but had been there for 26 years. He loves this town, loves this school and loves our kids. He's excited about being in the SEC and about our relationship, so I feel like it's a fresh start for Coach. I know he's really excited about the opportunity."

Talk about the staff you have attracted to Vanderbilt – and how they will approach spring drills.

FRANKLIN: "I feel even better and more assured about this staff now than when I was hiring them. I'm pleased that I've surrounded myself with such an intelligent bunch of guys, coaches that are passionate about being at Vanderbilt, and passionate about this opportunity. Their passion, energy and enthusiasm will translate to our players, to recruiting, to every aspect of our program.

"This entire staff is truly on the same page in regards to our goals, our mission and our plan.

"We are united as a coaching staff. It's 10 really talented guys that are truly working toward the same goal. It will give us a great opportunity to do something really special."

What are your top goals to be achieved this spring?

FRANKLIN: "We want to build trust between players and the coaches, and vice versa. Leadership is important, identifying guys that will stand up, lead by actions and also be willing to be verbal leaders and challenge those around them. And finally, competitiveness will be a key. Our goal is to be the most competitive team in the country. We will compete in every thing we do. That same attitude will also take place in the classroom.

"When it comes to Xs and Os, I want our guys to be confident in what we can do. It's most important that we give them a foundation of schemes that we can build on successfully between now and summer camp."

How does Spring Practice relate to your effort to change the culture surrounding Vanderbilt football?

FRANKLIN: "Spring ball is simply the next step. We have gone from how they work, to how they perceive themselves, to how they interact with their teammates, to how they carry themselves. Now, we need to come together as a squad and do it on the field.

"My belief is the harder you work, the harder it is to give in because you've simply put too much into it!

"We've done a great deal of work leading up to spring ball, we've sacrificed as a team, we've pushed ourselves, our attitude has improved significantly. Now, it's time to get this entire team working as one, all working toward a common goal to put Vanderbilt in a position for success."

You have talked about this being an ultra-competitive Spring Practice. Will this be a camp where we'll see competition for the starting job at virtually every position?

FRANKLIN: "Every job is open. There is no depth chart. There are some guys that will start simply because they have more experience, but nobody owns the position. Everybody is going to have to prove it, prove it every day on a consistent basis. Everything has changed, and everything will be challenged."

O-Line: Starters Back, but Thin on Numbers

No other position group exhibits Vanderbilt's need for more depth than the offensive line. There's definitely some good and bad in the corps.

OL mentor Herb Hand, the only coach retained by James Franklin from the 2010 Vanderbilt staff, is blessed with five returning starters, topped by tackles Wesley Johnson and Ryan Seymour, and senior guard Kyle Fischer.

On the flip side, Hand will enter spring drills limited by just 10 available linemen. The lack of numbers is best exhibited at center where sophomore Logan Stewart is the only active returnee on the spring roster.

"We have some proven guys up front, but we're too thin across the offensive line," Franklin said. "It's something we addressed (during recruiting), but it will take some time to get the numbers corrected."

RB Corps: Could Be Busy Spring for Tate, Powell

With 2010 starting TB Warren Norman (Jr.) rehabilitating injuries this spring, expect Wesley Tate (R-So.) and Micah Powell (R-Jr.) to get ample opportunities to impress the new coaching staff as potential running backs for next year.

The offensive staff expects big things this spring from Tate and Powell, both of whom have impressed during the team's winter workout program. Neither played extensively last year: Tate was used largely in short-yardage situations; Powell's role was on special teams.

Tate, the brother of former Notre Dame All-America WR Golden Tate, enters spring drills off his best offseason conditioning program.

The coaches will also get a close look at junior Zac Stacy, the team's second leading active rusher behind Norman with 809 career yards. Stacy rushed for 331 yards last year before the missing the last three games.

Players Switching Jersey Numbers

This spring, nine Commodores will wear a different jersey number than they did last year.

The jersey changes include a Vanderbilt player wearing jersey No. 1 (sophomore starting safety Kenny Ladler) for the first time since the 2004 season. As a freshman last year, Ladler wore No. 27.

Other jersey changes this spring include DB Steven Clark (#12 instead of #30), safety Andre Simmons (#25 instead of #32), safety Karl Butler (#28 instead of #40); snapper Andrew East (#34 instead of #51) and DE Thomas Ryan (#96 instead of #68).

VUFB 101: Women's Football Clinic on April 9

Vanderbilt's first women's football clinic, VUFB 101, will give fans an up close and personal look at Vanderbilt's football program.

VUFB 101 is specifically designed for Vanderbilt's female audience to expand their knowledge of college football rules and to take advantage of an opportunity to get an insider's look at the Commodore football program.

Head Coach James Franklin and the coaching staff will participate in VUFB 101, teaching the basics of Vanderbilt's offensive and defensive football schemes. The clinic will include teaching sessions on the practice field and in meeting rooms.

"I'm excited about this clinic and about the opportunity to meet more of our fans," Franklin said. "This clinic will be both informative and fun for our female fans."

The clinic will include a football rules segment with SEC officials, a presentation on football equipment, and give participants an opportunity to learn about the Commodores' strength-training regiment.

The registration fee is $50 before April 1, and $60 through April 9. The fee includes a souvenir bag with exclusive gifts, certificate of completion, photo with Coach Franklin, and a complimentary dinner by noted Vanderbilt food coach Majid "Magic" Noori.

The clinic is free for all female Vanderbilt students. VUFB 101 is limited to the first 300 registrants. All participants must be at least 18 years of age.

Eight 'Dores Limited in Spring Drills

Eight players, including a pair of key 2010 starters, are either out or limited this spring due to previous injuries.

The '10 starters still recovering from injuries are Warren Norman, a junior tailback/return specialist and 2009 Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Year, and redshirt junior defensive tackle Rob Lohr. Norman missed the final four games last year with a hand injury. Lohr underwent a nasal procedure last month intended to improve breathing.

Norman will miss all of spring practice. Lohr might be available in mid-April.

Others expected to see limited activity this spring are:

- Austin Monahan (leg). A junior TE, Monahan is expected to miss full contact drills, but will be able for individual drills.
- Jordan Rodgers (upper body). Junior QB is expected to see at full strength by the end of spring drills.
- Mason Johnston (leg). A sophomore TE, Johnston will miss contact during spring but should be ready to go this summer.
- Walker May (leg). A sophomore DE, May should see increased repetitions through spring drills.
- Thad McHaney (leg). Coaches expect sophomore DE to compete for playing time in summer camp.
- Grant Ramsay (leg). A redshirt freshman OL, Ramsay will get limited repetitions in spring, but return for full duty during summer.

Franklin Conducts Walk-on Tryouts

At least six players are new to the Commodores after they successfully made the team's spring roster following a February tryout for Vanderbilt students.

The tryouts were organized by Coach James Franklin. Hoping to expand the roster for overall depth purposes, the head coach visited Vanderbilt dorms and fraternity houses to drum up interest in the effort.

Sixteen undergrads accepted Franklin's challenge. Director of Performance Enhancement Dwight Galt guided the prospects through a session that included measurables, agility tests and position drills.

Franklin has added the following walk-ons: Nick Aguirre, safety, Mobile, Ala.; Jeff Gendelman, WR, Westchester, N.Y.; Daniel Hagaman, WR, Brentwood, Tenn.; Jarron Lewis, DB, Houston, Texas; John Townsley, QB, Upper Arlington, Ohio; and Jarrett Wadler, DB, Houston, Texas.

Here's a link to tryout video: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eG26Kqi2ytA&feature=player\_embedded.

Two Former Players Not With Team

Vanderbilt will be without two letterwinners from the 2010 squad, Jay Fullam (R-So., safety) and James Kittredge (So., OL).

Kittredge is not enrolled in Vanderbilt classes this semester and will not be available during the 2011 season. He plans to return as a student next January.

Fullam will transfer to the Air Force Academy, giving him a chance to fulfill a lifetime goal to follow in the footsteps of his grandfather and become fighter pilot. His grandfather, an Air Force pilot, was killed in the line of duty during the Vietnam War.

ALL-STAR PROSPECTS

BRANDON BARDEN TE ★ 6-5, 245, R-Sr. ★ Lincolnton, Ga.

RECOGNITION: All-SEC 2nd Team, AP, 2010;
SEC All-Freshman, 2008

Barden ranks as the active leader among Commodores with 91 career receptions, 1,001 receiving yards and eight TD catches...As a junior, he produced single-season highs in receptions (34) and yardage (425) while leading the team in both categories...A former prep QB, Barden needs 24 catches to become team's No. 2 all-time receiving TE.

KYLE FISCHER OG ★ 6-6, 310, R-Sr. ★ Columbia, S.C.

RECOGNITION: All-SEC Freshman, 2008

The former All-SEC Freshman pick is the Commodores' most experienced offensive lineman and an emotional leader among the interior corps...Enters his fifth season on campus having started 17 consecutive games – and 25 for his career...Has versatility to play either guard position and also owns experience at tackle...Can push his game up another notch as maturity and confidence grow.

TIM FUGGER DE ★ 6-4, 250, R-Sr. ★ Oak Brook, Ill.

A valuable defender for the Commodores, Fugger enters his last season still looking to discover what he'd do with a season of full health...Has excellent motor coming off the edge...In 18 career starts at DE...Topped the conference and ranked among SEC leaders as junior with four forced fumbles... Also contributed three QB sacks.

T.J. GREENSTONE DT ★ 6-3, 285, R-Sr. ★ Lawrenceville, Ga.

RECOGNITION: All-SEC Freshman, 2008

Productive last year as a defensive co-captain despite playing through pain...Still managed 28 tackles, 4.5 resulting in losses, as a junior...A tremendous weight room guy who is known to play every snap to the whistle...Leads all Commodore defensive linemen with 99 career tackles and 15 tackles for loss.

CASEY HAYWARD DB ★ 5-11, 188, Sr. ★ Perry, Ga.

RECOGNITION: All-SEC 2nd Team, 2010

A two-year starter, Hayward is frequently cited in lists mentioning the nation's top cornerbacks. As a junior, Hayward topped the Southeastern Conference – and ranked third nationally – with 17 passes defended...He also tied for second in the league with six interceptions while setting a single-season personal mark with 59 solo tackles...A physical defender, Hayward also ranks among the top man cover corners in the conference.

WESLEY JOHNSON OT ★ 6-5, 280, R-So. ★ Nashville, Tenn.

RECOGNITION: All-SEC Freshman, 2010
Freshman All-America, 2nd Team

Undersized a year ago, Johnson was forced into the lineup as a redshirt freshman due to limited personnel...Commodore coaches believe this superb blocking technician is on of the cusp of becoming one of the SEC's elite offensive linemen...Known for his smarts and agility, Johnson also blends tremendous work ethic in the weight room.

RICHARD KENT Punter ★ 6-2, 200, R-Jr. ★ Marietta, Ga.

Kent put together one of the best seasons ever by a first-year Commodore punter. The talented walk-on averaged 41.8 yards, the highest average by a first-time punter since Greg Johnson earned Freshman All-America honors in 2002... Kent also topped the nation with 84 punt attempts...Kent was effective pinning teams deep in their own territory, with 27 punts downed inside foes' 20-yard line... Opponents returned less than a third of Kent's attempts.

CHRIS MARVE LB ★ 6-0, 235, R-Sr. ★ Memphis, Tenn.

RECOGNITION: All-SEC, 2nd Team, 2009-10;
Freshman All-America, 2008

A defensive co-captain in 2010, Marve returns for his final season with 306 total tackles, tops among all returning players in the Southeastern Conference...Marve finished last year second among Commodores and among the SEC's best with 80 tackles, including eight for losses...Marve also leads all Commodores with 21 tackles for loss and seven forced fumbles.

WARREN NORMAN RB/RS ★ 5-10, 195, Jr. ★ Stone Mtn., Ga.

RECOGNITION: SEC Freshman of the Year, 2009

One of the Southeastern Conference's most dynamic running backs and return specialists, Norman is on pace to smash virtually every Vanderbilt record for kick returns and is within range of the Commodore career mark for rushing yards...In just eight games as a sophomore, Norman ended last year as the team leader with 459 rushing yards...Has become a valuable receiving threat out of the backfield.

SEAN RICHARDSON Safety ★ 6-2, 218, Sr. ★ Linden, Ala.

An imposing figure in the secondary, Richardson combines a physicality at the point-of-attack with thorough knowledge of the defensive scheme...A starter in 18 consecutive games, Richardson is superb as a run-supporting safety...Put together his best season as a junior, posting career highs and topping the team with 67 solo tackles and 98 total tackles...Also showed ability to make big plays by collecting seven tackles for loss.

RYAN SEYMOUR OT ★ 6-5, 310, R-Jr. ★ Kingsland, Ga.

RECOGNITION: All-SEC Freshman, 2009

Seymour enters the season more confident than ever, coming off 10 straight starts at right tackle as a third-year sophomore...Arguably the team's most talented player on the interior front, Seymour has the potential to become an all-conference performer as he learns to take advantage of all of his physical tools.

ZAC STACY RB ★ 5-9, 210, Jr. ★ Centreville, Ala.

Despite playing for much of the last two years in the shadow of fellow junior Warren Norman, Stacy has distinguished himself as a physical runner with breakaway abilities...A career 4.7-yard per carry back, Stacy is an effective rusher between the tackles, with ability to creat big plays on carries off tackle...Along with running mate Warren Norman, provides the Commodores with a potent 1-2 punch at tailback.

HEAD COACH JAMES FRANKLIN

James Franklin, one of the nation's top offensive coordinators and recruiters, is a head coach-in-waiting no longer.

Franklin, assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Maryland, was introduced Dec. 27 as the 27th head coach in Commodore football history.

A native of Langhorne, Pa., the 39-year-old Franklin is the first minority head coach to lead the Vanderbilt football program.

Since arriving on campus, Franklin has been an tireless spokesman for the program, crossing the nation to visit with key alumni groups and actively building relationships on campus with university organizations and leaders.

In 2010, Franklin molded Maryland quarterback Danny O'Brien into a Freshman All-America and the Atlantic Coast Conference's Rookie of the Year. O'Brien ranked third among freshmen nationally in pass efficiency, throwing for 2,438 yards and 22 touchdowns after becoming the team's starter four games into the season.

Terrapin wide receiver Torrey Smith also flourished last year in Franklin's offense, catching 67 passes for 1,055 yards and 12 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-ACC honors.

The Terrapins finished the 2010 season with a record of 9-4, concluding with an impressive victory over East Carolina in the Military Bowl. Maryland was a contender for the ACC crown in large part to an offense that ranked among the nation's best in limiting turnovers.

In 2008, Franklin's first year as offensive coordinator at Maryland, he helped mentor six ACC offensive performers, the most of any team in the conference.

Franklin spent eight years on the coaching staff at Maryland, including the last three seasons as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. In February 2009, Franklin was designated as the successor to Maryland head coach Ralph Friedgen.

Franklin's efforts at Maryland impressed former Terrapin Athletic Director Debbie Yow, now Director of Athletics at North Carolina State.

"Coach Franklin is a terrific fit for Vanderbilt...an over achiever who maximizes every opportunity. He will bring with him a relentless work ethic and a staff that does the same. Working hard and working smart are his trademarks, along with expectations of academic excellence," Yow said.

In addition to his offensive acumen, Franklin is regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters and helped the Terrapins sign 10 four-star recruits in the past two classes. Rivals.com has cited Franklin among the nation's Top 25 recruiters on at least four occasions, including the last two years.

Franklin also has a history of helping develop outstanding talent. Two recent pupils – Maryland receiver Darrius Heyward-Bey and Kansas State quarterback Josh Freeman – were chosen in the first round of the 2009 NFL Draft.

Franklin spent the 2006-07 seasons as offensive coordinator at Kansas State, helping the Wildcats achieve their first winning season in four years, and gain a berth in the inaugural Texas Bowl. While with Kansas State, he impressed another member of the Wildcat staff, current Tampa Bay Head Coach Raheem Morris.

"He is a first class coach, and a perfect fit for a university like Vanderbilt.

He's a tremendous motivator of men, and inspires character in each of his players. He works really hard to be the best that he can be as a coach, and has the toughness to build up a program in the SEC. He will no doubt be a great representative of Vanderbilt University," Morris said.

In 2007, one year after earning Freshman All-America honors, Freeman broke a number of school records by throwing for 3,353 yards, including 122 completions to Jordy Nelson. Freeman is currently the starting quarterback for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers while Nelson is a key receiver for the Green Bay Packers. That season, the Wildcat offense featured a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard receiver and 1,000-yard rusher for the first time in K-State history. Nelson also walked away with consensus All-America recognition that year.

Like Nelson, Franklin shares ties with Green Bay, having spent the 2005 season as the Packers' wide receivers coach under head coach Mike Sherman. That year, Donald Driver established a number of new career-high marks with 86 receptions for 1,221 receiving yards.

Franklin's first full-time NFL gig came on the heels of a five-year tenure with the Terrapins. After being hired prior to the 2000 season, Franklin was one of two assistant coaches retained by Friedgen that November.

The Terrapins would earn three postseason berths in the next four seasons, including an appearance in the 2002 FedEx Orange Bowl. In 2003, Franklin was promoted to be Maryland's recruiting coordinator, helping deliver back-to-back recruiting classes ranked among the nation's Top 25.

The tireless Franklin gained valuable experience in his early coaching career at five different stops. As the receivers coach at Idaho State in 1999, Franklin helped mentor a Bengals team that ranked ninth nationally in total offense.

Franklin's first coaching job at a BCS conference school came in 1998 at Washington State as the graduate assistant in charge of tight ends under head coach Mike Price. He also spent one season at James Madison as the wide receivers coach for head coach Alex Wood.

Franklin has been involved with the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program since 1998, including internships with the Minnesota Vikings, Philadelphia Eagles and Miami Dolphins.

Franklin began his coaching career in 1995 as the wide receivers coach at Kutztown State (Pa.). The following year, he returned to his alma mater, East Stroudsburg University, to mentor defensive backs.

A four-year letter winner at quarterback for East Stroudsburg from 1991-94, Franklin was a two-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference selection. As a senior he garnered team MVP honors and was a Harlon Hill nominee for Division II Player of the Year after setting seven school records, including single-season marks for total offense (3,128), passing yards (2,586) and TD passes (19).

Franklin earned a bachelor's in psychology from East Stroudsburg in 1995 and a master's in educational leadership from Washington State in 1999.

He and his wife, Fumi, have two daughters, Ava and Addison.

2008-10 Maryland (assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)

On December 23, 2007, Ralph Friedgen sways Franklin back to Maryland as the Terps' assistant head coach and offensive coordinator, then designates Franklin as his successor at Maryland in February 2009... The Terrapins go 9-4 overall in 2010, finishing second in the ACC's Atlantic Division and winning the Military Bowl... Quarterback Danny O'Brien earns ACC Rookie of the Year and Freshman All-America honors under Franklin's mentorship, ranking third nationally among freshmen with a 134.9 pass efficiency rating... O'Brien throws for 22 touchdowns against only eight picks after becoming the team's starter in week four... Franklin's 2010 offense ranks among the nation's best in limiting turnovers... Torrey Smith also flourishes in 2010, catching 67 passes for 1,055 yards to earn first-team All-ACC honors... For the fourth time in his career, Franklin also is honored as a Top 25 recruiter by Rivals.com for helping to secure a class that included a number of four-star athletes... In 2008, the Terps defeated four ranked teams en route to a win in the 2008 Roady's Humanitarian Bowl to cap 8-5 record. Wide receiver Darrius Heyward-Bey gets selected as ninth overall pick of the 2009 NFL Draft.

2006-07 Kansas State (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)

As K-State's offensive coordinator, Franklin helps the Wildcats to a 7-6 record in 2006, including a victory over No. 4 Texas. Kansas State also plays in the Texas Bowl, its first postseason appearance in three years... In 2007, under Franklin's guidance, K-State offense becomes first in team history to feature a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard receiver and 1,000-yard rusher in the same season.... QB Josh Freeman (eventual 2009 first-round pick of Tampa Bay) sets numerous school records, including 3,353 passing yards... WR Jordy Nelson became an All-America, catching 122 passes... Eventually, Nelson became a high draft pick of Green Bay and started on the Packers' 2011 world champion squad.

2005 Green Bay Packers-NFL (assistant coach/wide receivers)

Assisting Head Coach Mike Sherman, Franklin mentors a strong receiving arsenal that includes Donald Driver, Javon Walker and Robert Ferguson catching passes from Brett Favre... Despite an injury to Walker, the Packers rank sixth in the NFL in receiving yards... Driver sets career highs with 86 receptions for 1,221 receiving yards.

2000-04 Maryland (wide receivers/recruiting coordinator)

Franklin helps Maryland to three consecutive bowl appearances starting with 2001 squad... Maryland also achieves three straight seasons of 10 wins or more (2001-03), including appearance in 2002 FedEx Orange Bowl... Terps followed Orange Bowl berth with 30-3 victory over Tennessee in 2002 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and 41-7 win over West Virginia in 2003 Toyota Gator Bowl... Promoted to recruiting coordinator in 2003, Franklin delivers back-to-back recruiting classes that were ranked among the nation's Top 25.

1999 Idaho State (wide receivers)

As wide receivers coach, Franklin helps ISU rank ninth nationally for total offense.

1998 Washington State (graduate assistant coach/tight ends)

Franklin joins highly successful Washington State Coach Mike Price as graduate assistant.

1997 James Madison (wide receivers)

Franklin mentors James Madison wide receivers... Junior receiver Earnest Payton finishes his career as the school's leader in receptions with 185.

1996 East Stroudsburg (defensive backs)

Franklin returns to his alma mater, Division II East Stroudsburg.

NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship Program

Franklin participates in the program in 1998, serving internship with Miami Dolphins. He also has previous stints with the Philadelphia Eagles (1999) and Minnesota Vikings (2008).

Franklin Known For Mentoring Stellar Quarterbacks

By hiring James Franklin as its head coach, Vanderbilt has one of the nation's top quarterback mentors guiding its program.

And Franklin, believes the Commodores will succeed in developing future stars at the quarterback position.

"Maximizing the talents of our quarterbacks, and doing a great job mentoring that position, is critically important to the overall success of our team," Franklin said. "It is a priority with this coaching staff."

Franklin's emphasis on the position is extremely attractive to highly regarded prep quarterbacks nationwide.

Indeed, the new Commodore coach knows what it takes to become a top quarterback. An elite signal caller at the Division II level during his playing days, Franklin has surrounded himself with great quarterbacks since getting into the coaching ranks in the mid-1990s. His resume includes time with National Football League legends, a current pro starter in Tampa Bay's Josh Freeman, and others who have achieved individual and team successes.

Freeman, now in his second year at Tampa Bay, remains a huge Franklin fan.

"Coach (Franklin) has meant so much to me, both on and off the field," Freeman said. "One of the best things that ever happened to me was getting to work with Coach Franklin."

In three short years at Kansas State, Freeman evolved from a strong-armed prospect to the No. 17 overall NFL draft pick in 2009. In his last year paired with Franklin, Freeman emerged for the Wildcats, throwing for a team-record 3,353 yards along with 18 touchdowns.

Franklin's most recent pupil, Maryland's Danny O'Brien, blossomed as a redshirt freshman in 2010. Inserted into the Terrapins' starting lineup in the fourth game, O'Brien went on to garner Atlantic Coast Conference Rookie of the Year honors after throwing for 2,438 yards, 22 touchdowns and just eight interceptions.

O'Brien, also named as a first-team freshman All-America, was recruited by Franklin and swayed by the coach's knowledge of the quarterback position, competitive drive and enthusiasm.

"Coach was a big factor in my decision (to attend Maryland)," O'Brien said. "We have similar passion for the game and I thought he was the coach to mold me into the player I thought I could be."

Under Franklin's watch, O'Brien spent a year improving his mechanics, learning to break down film and getting a solid grasp of the offensive scheme. Then, when given the offensive reins last fall, O'Brien never looked back.

"Coach truly knows the position, and really taught me how to be a college quarterback and what it meant to have that role. Everything from watching film the proper way and leading our team to how I should carry myself, on and off the field," O'Brien said.

O'Brien's rise at Maryland mirrored that of Freeman at Kansas State.

"I was very raw, and needed development in really every area," Freeman said. "Coach taught me proper footwork, how to better understand pass routes and schemes, just how to play the position. Truly, to this day, my fundamental foundation as a quarterback came from the time with him."

Franklin mentored Freeman after spending the 2005 season at Green Bay coaching wide receivers. The Packer quarterback was none other than NFL all-time leading passer Brett Favre. Years earlier, through the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program, Franklin also spent extended time with another passing legend, Miami hall of famer Dan Marino.

"I've enjoyed some unique coaching experiences, especially at the quarterback position, and learned from each opportunity," Franklin said. "Watching how Brett Favre went about his business and how he treated his profession helped me coach and prepare Josh at Kansas State. I was better prepared to help Danny (O'Brien) after working with Josh, and I'll be even more prepared to develop Commodore quarterbacks after working with Danny."

At Vanderbilt, Franklin and his offensive staff will mentor a quarterback corps that includes senior Larry Smith and two untested prospects, redshirt junior Jordan Rodgers and redshirt sophomore Charlie Goro. Three quarterback signees in the 2011 class will expand the corps this summer.

What's Others Are Saying...

"Coach Franklin and I worked together at Kansas State back in 2006. He is a first class coach, and a perfect fit for a university like Vanderbilt. He's a tremendous motivator of men, and inspires character in each of his players."

"Coach Franklin works really hard to be the best that he can be as a coach, and has the toughness to build up a program in the SEC. He will no doubt be a great representative of Vanderbilt University."

Raheem Morris

"The hiring of Coach Franklin represents a new day for Vanderbilt football. He has my full support and commitment that we will help him create an environment where the successes on the field equal the university's extraordinary successes off the field. Coach Franklin will have an immediate and positive impact on our students, alumni, faculty, staff and broader Vanderbilt community, and I welcome him to Vanderbilt."

Nicholas S. Zeppos

Chancellor, Vanderbilt University

"James did a very good job for us while he was here. I'm very happy that he's gotten an opportunity to be a head coach. We wish him nothing but the best of luck at Vanderbilt."

Ralph Friedgen

former head coach, Univ. of Maryland

"James Franklin worked for me at the Green Bay Packers. I noticed early on that he always saw the big picture. He didn't just coach his players on the field, but saw the need for them to be accountable off the field as well. He took an interest in every aspect of their lives and coached not just the player, but the person."

"Coach Franklin is a great hire for Vanderbilt University. He will fall in line with the value system of the university as to what they expect from their athletes in all areas, as well as being totally committed to winning football games. I have no doubt he will have great success in Nashville."

Mike Sherman

Head Coach, Texas A&M; former head coach, Green Bay Packers

"Improving our football program is a high priority at Vanderbilt and the first step in the process was to identify just the right person to lead us. Our search was national and we talked to many, many candidates and experts in the college football arena. One name that quickly rose to the top of our list was James Franklin. We are thrilled that he has agreed to become our head coach."

David Williams II

Vice Chancellor of Student Athletics, Vanderbilt University

"Coach Franklin has a lot of energy, a lot of passion for the game, and obviously knew what he was doing. He cared about his players and was a great family guy."

"Coach was intense, but yet had fun and like I said, he had his passion for the game, his love for the game and a love for his players, and he cares about his players like family. I think he'll do a great job and I think Vanderbilt will be very pleased with the guy they got."

Jordy Nelson

Wide Receiver, Green Bay Packers; former All-America, Kansas State

"Coach Franklin is a terrific fit for Vanderbilt...an over achiever who maximizes every opportunity. He will bring with him a relentless work ethic and a staff that does the same. Working hard and working smart are his trademarks, along with expectations of academic excellence."

Debbie Yow

Director of Athletics, No. Carolina State; former A.D. at University of Maryland

"I've had the chance to work closely with Coach Franklin and I can't say enough good things about his approach, his work ethic, his passion for the game and his ability to teach the game. He's a tireless recruiter and one of those coaches who can get the most out of his players and is excellent at making and maintaining relationships. He would be a great fit with Vanderbilt and an asset to the campus and football program both."

Darrell Bevell

Offensive Coordinator, Seattle Seahawks

THE COACHES

JOHN DONOVAN
Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs
1st year on Vanderbilt staff

Offensive coordinator John Donovan came with Franklin from the University of Maryland, where he helped develop some of the most productive offenses in Terp history.

Franklin and Donovan were key assistants under Ralph Friedgen at Maryland – Franklin serving as coordinator and Donovan working with running backs. After Franklin accepted the Vanderbilt post in December, Donovan called offensive plays during the Terrapins' impressive 51-20 Military Bowl victory. The resounding postseason win gave Maryland a 9-4 overall record – and ownership of one of the most successful turn-arounds in the NCAA last year.

The 2010 Terrapins featured one of the top offensive attacks in team history. The unit ranked second in the Atlantic Coast Conference in scoring offense, averaging 32.2 points per game. It was also one of the nation's most efficient, helping Maryland rank sixth nationally in turnover margin by committing just 14 turnovers on the season.

Donovan's two top running backs, Davin Meggett and Da'Rel Scott, each rushed for more than 700 yards last year.

It marked Donovan's fourth season working with Maryland running backs. In 2008, Donovan's second season mentoring the position, Scott enjoyed a breakout campaign with 1,133 rushing yards. It was the seventh highest single-season total in school history, and helped Scott receive first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors.

Scott, who recently stood out at the NFL Combine, also was twice named Most Valuable Player of postseason victories by the Terrapins: in 2008 following a Humanitarian Bowl win over Nevada and in 2010 following the overwhelming Military Bowl triumph over East Carolina.

Donovan served the 2006 and 2007 campaigns as Maryland's quarterback coach. In 2006, Donovan mentored All-ACC quarterback Sam Hollenbach to his finest season, throwing for 2,371 yards and 15 touchdowns, and the eventual MVP trophy of Maryland's Champs Sports Bowl victory over Purdue. In 2007, Chris Turner threw for nearly 2,000 yards in eight starts, finishing third in the ACC in passing efficiency and helping the Terps knock off Top 10 foes Rutgers and Boston College.

Prior to taking over as running backs coach, Donovan served as Maryland's assistant recruiting coordinator. Friedgen also hired Donovan as an offensive graduate assistant from 1998-2000 at Georgia Tech. Donovan also worked as an assistant secondary coach at Villanova in 1997, helping the Wildcats to a 12-1 mark.

A 1997 graduate of Johns Hopkins, Donovan was a three-year starter at defensive back for the Blue Jays, earning 12 career interceptions.

Donovan and his wife, Stacey, are the parents of a 5-year-old son, John Patrick, and two daughters, Cate, 3, and Shea, 1

BOB SHOOP
Defensive Coordinator/Safeties
1st year on Vanderbilt staff

Former William & Mary defensive coordinator Bob Shoop will join the Vanderbilt Commodores as defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

A 23-year veteran in the coaching ranks, Shoop brought much needed stability in the William & Mary position. The former head coach at Columbia guided a remarkable transformation of the defense during his four years on campus. In 2010, the unit ranked among the top defenses in the Division I playoff subdivision, limiting opponents to just 16.7 points per game. In 2009, Shoop's defense helped the Tribe to an 11-3 campaign that ended with an appearance in the FCS national semifinals.

The 2009 William & Mary defense was one of the best in school history. It ended the year tops in the nation in rush defense, allowing just 61.1 yards per game, and second nationally in total defense (229.8 ypg) and scoring defense (12.1 ppg.). The effort earned him 2009 FootballScoop NCAA FCS Coordinator of the Year honors.

Shoop's résumé spans two decades as a Division I coach, including two separate stints as a defensive coordinator (Yale, 1994-96; Villanova, 1997) and three years of head coaching experience (Columbia, 2003-05).

Shoop's most recent position prior to coming to William & Mary was at the University of Massachusetts, where he worked with the Minutemen's defensive backfield and helped the squad to an appearance in the NCAA Division I-AA Championship game in 2006.

Prior to his season in Amherst, Shoop was head coach at Columbia for three seasons and produced 20 All-Ivy League selections during his tenure. In 2005, he led the program to its first 2-0 start since 1996, a feat accomplished just three times in the previous 50 years.

Prior to Columbia, he served as defensive secondary coach at Boston College for four years from 1999-2002. Shoop played a major role in the Eagles' success, including bowl victories in three of his four seasons.

Shoop also had Ivy League experience as an assistant coach at Yale (1989 and 1994-96) under legendary Hall of Fame coach Carmen Cozza. He also has served stints as an assistant coach at Army (1998), Villanova, where he was defensive coordinator for the 12-1 1997 squad, and Northeastern (1991-93).

Shoop played collegiate football at Yale. He earned honorable mention All-Ivy accolades in 1987 as a receiver and was recognized with Yale Football's prestigious Robert Gardner Anderson Memorial Award for team spirit, dedication and leadership. He also earned four letters in baseball.

A native of Oakmont, Pa., where he recently was inducted into the Allegheny-Kiski Valley Sports Hall of Fame, Shoop and his wife, Maura, have two children, Tyler and Jay. His brother, John, is the offensive coordinator at the University of North Carolina.

BRENT PRY

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers
1st year on Vanderbilt staff

Brent Pry, a former defensive coordinator at Georgia Southern and Louisiana-Lafayette, will serve as co-coordinator and coach linebackers under Head Coach James Franklin.

Pry joins the Commodore staff after one year at Georgia Southern where he helped guide the Eagles back to national prominence in the Division I playoff subdivision as defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

Aided by Pry's stiff defensive unit, Georgia Southern advanced to the NCAA FCS national semifinals with a 10-5 overall record, and also notched an important regular season victory over No. 1-ranked Appalachian State.

Pry's defense contributed to the team success, ranking among the nation's best in scoring defense (11th, 18.5 ppg.) and total defense (9th, 286.9 ypg).

Pry joined Georgia Southern from the University of Memphis, where he served three years as the Tigers' defensive line coach. He was part of a staff that guided the Tigers to two bowl appearances, and molded a defensive line in 2008 into one of the Conference USA's best units.

From 2002-06, Pry served at Louisiana-Lafayette, holding positions of assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. He coached the Ragin' Cajuns' linebackers for five years and was promoted to assistant head coach in 2004. The '05 team won the Sun Belt Conference title and featured five players that eventually played in the NFL.

Pry was an assistant coach at Western Carolina for four years, coaching the defensive line in 1998-99 and defensive backs and special teams in 2000-01. In 1998, WCU finished ninth in the nation in total defense.

Pry served as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech with the defensive line from 1995-98, where the Hokies were among the top-ranked defenses in the nation.

Pry began his coaching career at East Stroudsburg (Pa.) University as an outside linebackers coach for the 1993 season. He then worked with defensive backs in 1994. One of the standouts at East Stroudsburg was the current Vanderbilt head coach Franklin.

A free safety at Maryville (Tenn.) College in 1988, Pry later transferred to the University of Buffalo, where he played under former NFL head coach Jim Haslett. Pry lettered in 1990, then suffered a career-ending injury in 1991, then returned as a student coach in 1992.

Pry is a second generation college football coach. His father, Jim, has coached at the college level for more than 30 years.

Pry and his wife, Amy, have a son, Colby, and two daughters, Madeline and Catherine.

CHARLES BANKS

Tight Ends/Special Teams Coordinator
1st year on Vanderbilt staff

Charles Banks, a former assistant coach at the University of Maryland, will join Vanderbilt Head Coach James Franklin on the Commodore staff for 2011.

Banks will coordinate Vanderbilt special teams and coach the tight end position.

Banks served as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach for the Terrapins in 2009-10, helping Maryland to an impressive victory in the 2010 Military Bowl to cap one of the NCAA's most remarkable year-to-year turnarounds. The Terps also finished the season ranked among the Top 25 teams.

A graduate of James Madison (Va.) University, Banks has experience coaching offense and special teams at the high school, collegiate and National Football League levels.

Banks' demonstrated his special teams expertise in 2010 mentoring punt returner Tony Logan to first team All-ACC honors. Logan had two punt returns for touchdowns and averaged 18.8 yards per return, ranking first in the ACC and No. 3 in the NCAA.

In 2009, another Banks' standout at Maryland, Torrey Smith, set the ACC single-season kickoff return yards mark for the second straight season en route to second team all-conference honors. Banks also groomed Nick Ferrara to freshman All-America honors as a placekicker.

Prior to working with Franklin at Maryland, Banks also had quite a bit of success as an assistant at the University of Richmond, which captured the 2008 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) title.

Banks also oversaw Richmond's special teams in 2008 when the Spiders ranked 27th nationally in punt returns and 22nd in kickoff coverage. Individually, Derek Hatcher ranked 25th in punt returns (10.8 yards per return). In 2007, Richmond standout Justin Rogers was named the conference's Special Teams Player of the Year after leading the league with a 30.4-yard kickoff return average.

A native of Leonardtown, Md., Banks had two stints at Hampton University (2000-04; 2006) and spent 2005 with the St. Louis Rams. While serving as an assistant special teams coach at St. Louis, the Rams improved from 32nd to 17th in NFL special teams rankings.

Banks played running back for James Madison, where he earned a bachelor's degree in speech communication in 1994. He later earned a graduate degree from Eastern Kentucky.

He started coaching at his alma mater, Leonardtown High School, in 1995.

Banks and his wife, Katrina, are the parents of a daughter, Ashley, and son, William.

CHRIS BEATTY

Wide Receivers/Off. Recruiting Coord.
1st year on Vanderbilt staff

Former West Virginia University offensive assistant Chris Beatty will mentor Vanderbilt wide receivers in 2011. Beatty will also serve as the team's offensive recruiting coordinator.

For the last three years, Beatty served WVU in dual responsibilities as running backs/slot receivers coach and Director of Recruiting for the Mountaineers, helping West Virginia to a 9-4 overall record and appearance in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando, Fla.

Beatty mentored two of the most productive offensive players in Mountaineer football history: running back Noel Devine and slot receiver/return specialist Jock Sanders.

Devine rushed for more than 3,600 yards under Beatty's guidance, and twice earning All-Big East Conference honors. The fleet-footed Devine concluded his Mountaineer career with more than 4,000 rushing yards, ranking fourth all-time in Big East Conference history. Sanders ranked as one of the Big East's most productive receivers, catching 195 passes with Beatty as his mentor. Sanders concluded his career as West Virginia's all-time leading receiver, and second all-time in the Big East. He also posted a reception in 41 consecutive games.

Beatty joined the West Virginia staff after the 2007 season mentoring running backs at Northern Illinois under former Huskie head coach Joe Novak. Beatty's top pupil at Northern Illinois, sophomore Justin Anderson, rushed for 1,245 yards and eight touchdowns.

Beatty entered the collegiate coaching ranks at Hampton (Va.) University, helping the Pirates to the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference championship and appearance in the NCAA I-AA playoffs. As Hampton's offensive coordinator and mentor to quarterbacks and receivers in 2006, Beatty guided the offense to the No. 7 ranking in scoring among NCAA I-AA teams with an average of 34.7 points per game.

Nine of Beatty's former players have gone on to the NFL. He has also mentored 12 all-conference performers.

Prior to becoming a college coach, Beatty served successful tenures as a head coach at three Virginia high schools. Beatty guided Landstown High School to a superb 40-2 overall record from 2003-05, and captured the state's 3A state championship behind eventual Florida Gators All-American Percy Harvin. All three of Beatty's Landstown teams advanced to the 3A state title game.

A native of Centreville, Va., Beatty was a standout wide receiver at East Tennessee State University, graduating in 1994 as the Bucs' all-time leading receiver. An All-Southern Conference recipient in 1994, he played professionally for two Canadian Football League teams.

Beatty and his wife, Kristy, are the parents on a son, Aaron.

HERB HAND

Offensive Line
2nd year on Vanderbilt staff

Despite coaching a corps of just nine healthy players, Hand kept the unit together, getting the youthful line to put together its best overall performances as the season came to a close. One of Hand's redshirt freshman prospects, tackle Wesley Johnson, earned Freshman All-SEC recognition from the league coaches and Freshman All-America honors from Phil Steele's College Football magazine.

Hand is the only current coach that served on the former Vanderbilt staff. Hand worked three years at Tulsa, serving as an assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and line coach. Hand helped guide Tulsa to consecutive GMAC Bowl appearances behind one of the NCAA's most explosive spread offenses.

As Tulsa's co-offensive coordinator, Hand coached an offensive line that paved the way for the nation's No. 1-ranked offense in 2007 and 2008. The Hurricane averaged 570 yards of total offense in 2008, and 544 yards per game in 2007. The unit also finished second in the nation with a 47-point scoring average in 2008.

Before joining Tulsa, Hand spent six successful years at West Virginia, serving as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. He helped West Virginia to three Big East Conference championships and five straight postseason bowl games during the span, including the 2006 Sugar Bowl, a 36-35 victory over SEC Eastern Division foe Georgia.

In 2006, West Virginia finished with an 11-2 record and was among the nation's top-10 teams for most of the season. He helped lead an offense that ranked second nationally in rushing, third in scoring, and fourth in total offense. A year earlier, WVU posted an 11-1 record and was ranked fifth nationally.

Prior to moving to West Virginia, Hand served as an offensive graduate assistant at Clemson in 1999-2000, as the Tigers participated in the 1999 Peach Bowl and 2000 Gator Bowl. Before that, he was defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator at Concord College for two seasons (1997-98). From 1994-96, Hand served as defensive coordinator at Glenville State, where he helped coach the squad to three WVIAC Championships. Previously, Hand was a grad assistant for three seasons (1991-93) at West Virginia Wesleyan where he coached the linebackers.

A 1990 Hamilton College graduate, Hand received his bachelor's in history, and a master's in 1993 from West Virginia Wesleyan in business administration.

Hand and his wife, Debbie, have three children: sons, Trey and Cade, and daughter, Bailey.

WESLEY MCGRIFF
Defensive Backs/Def. Recruiting Coord.
1st year on Vanderbilt staff

Former Miami Hurricanes assistant coach Wesley McGriff will mentor the Vanderbilt defensive secondary in 2011 under Commodore Head Coach James Franklin. He also serves as the team's defensive recruiting coordinator.

In four years at Miami, McGriff mentored some of the ACC's top defensive backs. He coached former Hurricane All-America Kenny Phillips for two seasons, developing the hard-hitting safety into a 2009 first-round draft pick.

McGriff, 42, has also mentored two other Miami standouts: cornerback Brandon Harris and safety Ray-Ray Armstrong.

McGriff's ability to develop standouts also is evident in former Miami athlete Sam Shields. McGriff molded Shields from a wide receiver to a high-performing senior defensive back. This year, Shields started at cornerback for the Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers.

At Miami, McGriff's secondary proved a big reason why the Hurricanes finished 7-5 in 2010 and played in the Hyundai Sun Bowl. The unit helped Miami rank second in the nation in pass defense (146.3 ypg).

Before joining the Miami staff, McGriff also has coaching experience at Baylor. He served four years at Baylor as recruiting coordinator and defensive backs coach. McGriff's ability to recruit also became apparent at Baylor. He was responsible for signing offensive lineman Jason Smith, who left Baylor as an All-America tackle and the No. 2 pick of the 2009 draft.

McGriff has SEC experience, serving 2001-02 on the Kentucky staff. Prior to his stint at Baylor, McGriff spent two seasons with the Wildcats, coaching running backs in 2001 and cornerbacks in 2002. One of his Kentucky pupils, Artose Pinner, led the SEC in rushing.

McGriff began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Savannah State. He then served as Savannah State's defensive coordinator in 1993-94, and as the team's interim head coach for three months in spring 1993.

From 1995-1999, McGriff served as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Kentucky State. As coordinator in 1995, McGriff helped Kentucky State become the No. 1-ranked defense in Division II. In 1997, they were the top-ranked pass defense. McGriff spent the 2000 campaign as the secondary coach at Eastern Kentucky.

McGriff played at South Carolina State for one year before transferring to Savannah State, where he started at linebacker for three seasons and was named the conference's 1989 Male Academic Athlete of the Year.

McGriff was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army in 1990 and was a member of the Army Reserves until 2001. He and his wife, Karen, have a son, Jaylen.

RICKY RAHNE
Quarterbacks
1st year on Vanderbilt staff

Ricky Rahne, a former offensive assistant coach at Kansas State, will mentor Vanderbilt quarterbacks in 2011.

Rahne, who enjoyed a record-breaking collegiate career as quarterback at Cornell University, worked previously with Franklin at Kansas State during the 2006-07 seasons. Working together, Franklin and Rahne helped mentor talented Wildcat quarterback Josh Freeman into an eventual first-round NFL draft pick.

Rahne has been a full-time member of the Kansas State coaching staff for the last four years. He served as tight ends coach under legendary Wildcat head coach Bill Snyder the last two years, after mentoring Kansas State running backs coach in 2007-08.

In 2010, Rahne helped Kansas State secure a berth in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium after a 7-5 regular season. The Wildcat offense averaged 33.6 points per game, ranking 22nd in the nation, and produced nearly 200 rushing yards per game.

In 2009, Rahne tutored first team All-Big 12 tight end Jeron Mastrud, who ranks second in school history in receptions among tight ends.

Directing the Wildcat running backs from 2007-08, Rahne helped tutor All-Big 12 selection and current Pittsburgh Steeler James Johnson, who became the fastest Wildcat to rush for 1,000 yards in a season in 2007.

Rahne served as the Wildcats' offensive graduate assistant during the 2006 season, working closely with all aspects of the Kansas State offense. He also worked hand-in-hand with Franklin with Wildcat quarterbacks, and specifically helped develop a young Freeman into the team's starting quarterback. Eventually, Freeman put together one of the greatest careers ever by a Kansas State signal caller and became a first-round draft pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Freeman just completed his second year as an NFL starter and is considered one of the league's future stars at quarterback.

Before joining the staff at Kansas State, Rahne spent the 2005 season as the running backs coach at Cornell, where he mentored first team All-Ivy League selection Luke Siwula. During 2005, Siwula had six 100-yard rushing games. He ended the year with 1,086 yards on the ground for the 10th-best single-season rushing total in Cornell history.

During the 2004 campaign, Rahne was a member of the coaching staff at Holy Cross, where he served as an assistant defensive line coach.

A native of Morrison, Colo., Rahne finished his career as Cornell's all-time leader in nearly every passing category and earned the team's MVP honors three times. Rahne earned a bachelor's degree in industrial and labor relations from Cornell in 2002.

Rahne and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of a son, Ryder.

THE COACHES

SEAN SPENCER

Defensive Line
1st year on Vanderbilt staff

Former Bowling Green assistant Sean Spencer will serve as defensive line coach for the Commodores under Head Coach James Franklin.

In 2010, Spencer's top Bowling Green pupil, defensive tackle Chris Jones, garnered six quarterback sacks, including 3.5 sacks in a win over Central Michigan that helped Jones earn National Defensive Lineman of the Week honors. Jones later also earned All-MAC Conference recognition.

The Bowling Green defensive front posted 40 sacks in the 2009-10 seasons as Spencer as the unit mentor. When Spencer accepted the Bowling Green post in 2009, the defensive line corps did not feature a single returning starter.

Spencer, who has starting his 11th year of defensive line coaching experience, was also the special teams coordinator at UMass in 2007 and 2008. Along with his special teams duties, Spencer also coached the defensive line for the Minutemen. In 2007 the Minutemen had 44 sacks, one of the top sack totals in the country, led by All-American and Buck Buchanan Award finalist David Buris.

Spencer also mentored two special teams phenoms at UMass: kick returner Courtney Robinson and punter Brett Arnold. Robinson earned first team All-Colonial Athletic Association honors after breaking the team's record for kick return yards. Arnold earned first team All-America honors for his punting abilities.

Spencer spent the 2006 season at Hofstra University where he was the defensive line coach for the Pride. In the summer of 2006, Spencer took part in an NFL summer internship with the New York Jets.

Prior to Hofstra, Spencer served as linebackers coach at Villanova University in 2005 where he coached All-American Brian Hulea, who finished his career as the all-time tackler in the CAA.

Spencer also spent one season at the College of Holy Cross where he served as defensive line coach in 2004. Before his stint at Holy Cross, Spencer served as the defensive line coach at UMass from 2001 through 2003.

Spencer also coached at Trinity College from 1998 through 2000 where he was the running backs coach and pass game coordinator in 1999 before becoming the defensive line coach in 2000, Shippensburg University from 1996 to 1998 as running backs coach, and Wesleyan University from 1995 and 1996 as the receiver/tight ends coach.

Spencer started three years at free safety as an undergraduate at Clarion University. He earned a bachelor's in political science in 1995.

Spencer has one daughter, Alysia.

DWIGHT
GALT

Director of Performance Enhancement
1st year on Vanderbilt staff

Veteran University of Maryland Strength and Conditioning Director Dwight Galt will serve as Director of Performance Enhancement with the Vanderbilt football squad in 2011.

Galt comes to Vanderbilt from the Terrapins' program that experienced one of the NCAA's most impressive turnarounds in 2010, a 9-4 campaign capped by a 51-20 victory over East Carolina in the Military Bowl.

Several of Galt's former student-athletes have impressed pro scouts at the NFL Combine. In March, former Terp wide receiver/return specialist Torrey Smith and running back Da'Rel Scott were among the top overall performers at the combine.

Galt served as Director of Strength & Conditioning at Maryland for the last 17 years, and spent a total of 27 years with the Terrapins. He began at Maryland in 1984, working as an unpaid intern for then strength director Frank Costello. He assisted in the preparation of Atlantic Coast Conference championship football teams in 1984 and 1985 and also was the strength and conditioning coach for the Terrapins' men's basketball program that featured phenom Len Bias.

After completing his master's in exercise physiology from Maryland in 1989, Galt was hired as a full-time assistant strength coach at Maryland. For the next five years, Galt worked with more than 500 Terrapin student-athletes.

Galt was named Maryland's Head Strength Coach in December 1993, with responsibility for the physical preparation of 27 Terrapin intercollegiate sports - involving more than 700 student-athletes. His primary responsibility during the past 17 years has been the athletic preparation of the football program, though his primary duties also included the Maryland men's basketball program from 1989-2000.

Throughout his Maryland career, Galt has been extremely fortunate to employ several superb assistants, including Evan Marcus, head strength coach at the Miami Dolphins; Kurtis Schultz, head strength coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; Ray Wright, head strength coach of the Washington Redskins; and Craig Fitzgerald, head strength coach at the University of South Carolina.

Galt and his wife, Janice, have been married for 31 years. They have four children: Angie, 28; Teri, 26; and 23-year-old twin sons, Dwight IV and Tommy. Both daughters played intercollegiate sports: Angie as a softball catcher at Brown University; Teri as an all-conference soccer defender at Frostburg State (Md.) University. Both sons played football at Maryland and remain active in collegiate athletics: Dwight IV is a strength coach at the University of South Carolina; Tommy is an offensive graduate assistant at South Carolina.
